A solid display of goal keeping at both ends of the ice saw a thrilling encounter at the Skydome end in a tie, during which Adam Matteri scored his first goal for his new favourite team. Dominating much of the play, the Badgers piled on the pressure in the closing stages but couldn't find a way through the Outlaws' on-loan shot stopper. Coventry's Premier Rec Team™ travel to Basingstoke for the first time this Saturday to take on the Hyenas.
